

Chapter 1 Introduction to Politics

Instructor: Tzu-Chi Hsiao

Department of Political Science

National Taiwan University

Mutual Encouragement

Learning without thought puts effort in chaos. Thought without learning leads laziness.

Confucius

→ Learning and Thinking are both vital.

Angel or Demon

May be an angel in the your grade.

May be a demon in the examination.

Content

- What is Politics?
- The Political System
- The State
- The Nation
- The Government

Content

- What is Politics?
- The Political System
- The State
- The Nation
- The Government

System of the government I

Parliamentary system.

System of the government II

President system.

System of the government III

Premier-President system.

President-parliamentary system.

Explanation

- The solid line means the hierarchical relationship, with arrow indicating selection of agent by principle.
- The dashed line with two-headed arrow indicates transactional relationship, with arrow indicating accountability of agent to principle who may terminate delegated authority.
- The dotted line with two-headed arrow indicates transactional relationship.

Endeavor or Laid flat

Endeavor is the key to success, unless you want to date with me.

Good luck

You deserve to gain  $A^+$ .

Keep Going

If you want to contact me, please send an email to me.

End of Chapter 1